

Good morning! 12-7-15

I'm checking planners today! Beware!

Bell Work: Another "It Takes Three"
This one is difficult, but I KNOW YOU CAN DO IT!

Successful students will get them all correct!

Connotation/Denotation - What is it? How does it affect our writing? At the end of the hour, students will have divided words into positive and negative categories based on their connotations.

Good morning!

12-8-15

Bell Work: Another Word Removal Ws. Can you follow the directions accurately?

Successful kids will get the message.

Conferencing today: What small thing have you done to move forward?

English Grammar 101: Your goal is to pass two post tests. How many have you passed this quarter?

homophone
Same sound

I eye I'll aisle
pedal petal peddle

contraction
I^oll = I ~~will~~
Do ~~not~~ = don't

Good morning!

12-9-15

Wake up Count: 7

Bell Work: Homophones - Find one in each sentence. You should be able to correctly identify at least 13/15.

Signal Words: Words that alert a reader to a text structure. Everyone should be able to make a list of the words.

The reindeer are pulling Santa Claus and his sleigh.

Good morning!

12-10-15

Wake up count: 6 more

Bell Work: more homophones - This time in a Magic Square.

Successful students will not only find the magic number, but know at least 13 of the 16 homophones!

Finish identifying the text structures from yesterday. You should be able to get at least 8 of 10 right.

Review sheet on text structure: Test tomorrow. Are you ready?

Good morning!

12-11-15

Wake up count: 5

On the index card, write your name and class schedule.

Bell Work: The Letter Line Up - How many words can you identify in the line up? You should be able to find at least 15.

Test on structure: Successful students will feel confident in their answers.

Connotation/Denotation: Activity to show your knowledge of these concepts. All students will finish the worksheet and share with someone else before turning in.

Crossword puzzle: Review the terms we have learned this semester. All students, with the help of their notes, should complete the crossword puzzle and turn it in to me by the end of the hour.

Words

#1 Snake

#2 Childish

#3 Cheap

#4 Chicken

#5 Shady

#6 Crib

