

Good morning! 11-23-15

Turn in last week's bell work.
No bell work today or tomorrow.

I'm checking planners today!

- 1. Finish commitment to your short term goal. All students will be posting these so they publicly commit and to keep them on track.
- 2. Gratitude lesson - Did you know that grateful people are statistically happier than non-grateful people? By the end of the hour, all students will write a letter to someone to whom they are grateful.

Who are the people that helped you get to where you are?

What did those people specifically do to help you?

How did what they did directly influence you?

"The Science of Happiness"

Happy Thanksgiving

Good morning!

11-24-15

No bell work today!

Have a wonderful break!

Welcome Ms. Wagner! Today we will be working on STUDY SKILLS. By the end of the hour you will have a couple of new ideas on ways to study.

You will also be conferencing with me. You will have the first small step designed for accomplishing your goal.
