

Good morning! 11-11-15
Did you miss me?

Who still needs to turn in a permission slip?

Bell Work: Mystery ~ to fire up those neurons. Successful students will figure out who the planner , the gunman and the lookout are.

Catching up: Turn in bell work from last week
Turn in Grammar Sheets
Fill out reflection sheet

How did you do in first quarter?

Practice with Children's Books: Add a connection piece to your presentation. Also, I need to check in on your questions - Have them ready for me. Successful students will be confident in their presentations for tomorrow.

GOOD MORNING!

11-12-15

YOU WILL BE READING YOUR BOOK TO THE CLASS FOR A GRADE. WHY? TO SHOW A POLISHED PRESENTATION AND TO GET A GRADE FROM ME.

Good morning!

Bell Work: Superstitions reading - read the article and then we will do an activity. This activity will work on your speed reading. How much can you remember if you have to skim the reading? Students will determine the benefit of skimming.

Reflections on the field trip - What connections do we make to school? Students will find at least one benefit from this field trip.

Read your book aloud to the class - So you can show what you learned and for me to give you a grade. Students will have a chance to present a polished reading.

Ways SR is Helpful

understanding my other English class understanding questions better
I have a better understanding of English getting in the habit of doing homework every night keeping me organized (6) helps me come up with ideas I didn't think of before giving me less work because we don't have homework in here.
helping me communicate with my teachers better getting me out of Spanish not being afraid to ask questions working better with others getting out of my comfort zone paying better attention staying on track (3)

I love the planners
getting my homework done everything
becoming less shy
finding main ideas
managing my time
teaching me not to give up reading stories
understanding questions better

What more can Ms. Wagner and Mrs. Kienman do?

teach techniques of studying (5)

weekly grade checks (7)

remind me to study (2)

keep doing what you're doing (2)

more interactive activities (2)

remind me about my homework when you see me in the hall make me do my homework and not be lazy relate what we are doing to the outside world

find a better way to remind me about my work

get me a tutor (2)

nothing

I'm good

one on one conversations